

PRACTICE WORKSHEET: DOUBLE OBJECT PRONOUNS

Translate the following sentences. The sex of the direct object is in parenthesis.

| |
|---|
| 1. He gives it to me. (masculine) |
| 2. She gives it to me. (feminine) |
| 3. I give them to you. (masculine) |
| 4. I give them to you. (feminine) |
| 5. He wants to give it to you. (masculine) |
| 6. She wants to give it to you. (feminine) |
| 7. They want to give them to you. (masculine) |
| 8. They want to give them to me. (feminine) |

| |
|--|
| 1. He gives it to him. (masculine) |
| 2. She gives it to her. (feminine) |
| 3. They give them to them. (masculine) |
| 4. They give them to them. (feminine) |
| 5. He wants to give it to him. (masculine) |
| 6. She wants to give it to her. (feminine) |
| 7. They want to give them to them. (masculine) |
| 8. They want to give them to them. (feminine) |

CONGRATULATIONS, YOU'RE DONE!

Check your answers @ <http://gringoespanol.com/quickies/double-object-pronouns/>